A.

John Phillips

John Phillips appears in the Town of Grafton, Rensselaer County, New York, before 1790. Syl. His. Page 547 says "John Phillips and Thomas Phillips settled on the present Truman Keller farm". This is in a list of early settlers, probably between 1780-1790. Syl. Lmk. Page 533, says, "Among the early inhabitants during the eighteenth century were  John Phillips, Thomas Phillips"

Cen. 1790 shows John Phillips, Jr. in Stephentown, Albany County, N.Y. with a wife and five children, three small sons and two daughters. This would accord with the family of John.

John G. Hill and John Phillips signed articles of agreement
Jan. 9, 1802, for the purchase of 170 acres for $2500. The deed for this property was signed April 17, 1806.

Syl. Hist. Page 547 says, "In the election of 1807, the first

Recd Feb 28 1979

election after the organization of the town, John Phillips was elected one of the Fence Viewers and Overseers of Highways."

B.

Grafton.

Grafton is about twelve miles east of Troy, N.Y. not far from the Vermont border. Much of the land is stony and unproductive. Part of the old John Phillips farm is now included in the State Forest Reserve.

Rensselaer County was set off from Albany County in 1791. Stephentown in 1790 included a large part of the present Rensselaer County. Grafton became a separate town in 1806.

Syl. Hist. Page 546, says, "Grafton was probably not settled until after the Revolution. Few if any inhabitants in the present limits of Grafton down to 1775. Soon after peace was restored in 1783, many persons whose families had been reduced to poverty found it necessary to emigrate."

C.

Elizabeth Chase Phillips

John Phillips married, probably about 1779 or 1780, Elizabeth Chase, dau. of Benjamin Chase and Elizabeth Haviland Chase, of Westchester County, N.Y. Benjamin and Elizabeth were married Dec. 30, 1761, and their dau. Elizabeth was probably born in 1762 or 1763. She was a descendant of William Chase, the Immigrant, who came to Boston with Winthrop in 1630. Her line was William 1, William 2, Abraham 3, Phineas 4, Daniel 5, Benjamin 6, Elizabeth 7

N.E.H. for 1933 has a series of articles on the William Chase family. Many of this line were Quakers, though it is not certain that John Phillips and Elizabeth were. 1841, 1842, 1843, 1844, 1845, 1846, 1847, 1848, 1849, 1850, 1851, 1852, 1853, 1854, 1855, 1856, 1857, all heirs, including the grandchildren of John, children of Benjamin, John, Jr. and Hannah, all deceased. All heirs have been officially notified. The report is of much interest, showing all the names and residence of each. Of the fourteen children, three were dead, six were living in other counties in New York State, five were still living in Rensselaer County.

The Will bequeathed One Dollar to each of the children except Isaac who was to receive Fifty Dollars after four years, all personal property and Two Hundred Dollars to his widow Nancy, and all real estate to his grandson, John Broughton.

Tallman, the youngest son, tried to prove the father insane. The following persons testified:-

Tallman Phillips objects to the Will.

David Comstock, son-in-law, objects but testifies--John Phillips was 80 years of age. Three of his children had died within past six or seven years. These afflictions had impaired his mind.

Daniel H. Brock of Grafton lives about a mile from deceased. Frequent references to Phillips' first wife. John Phillips told him that he and his son Tallman had had some difficulty.

Ebenezer Mott of Grafton, acquainted with John Phillips forty years.

Phinehas Woodward, son-in-law of John Phillips.

John Munroe of Grafton.

George Phillips--John Phillips was his Uncle--lived about one-half mile from him--joined lands for 24 years past. About five years ago last April he married his last wife. John Phillips said children did not use him well. Tallman and John Phillips had difficulty.

Ziba Hewitt of Grafton knew Phillips for forty years.

Aaron Eldred of Grafton.

Benjamin Babcock of Grafton had known John Phillips 25 years. Had talked with John about the difficulty between him and his children. Thought his account correct.

Joseph Mattison of Grafton, blacksmith.

Dorothy Phillips of Grafton.

Summary.

From all the above, it appears that John Phillips was one of nine Phillips men listed as heads of Families in Stephentown in 1790. He is listed as John Phillips, Junior, which may indicate that the other John Phillips was his father. He was probably a brother of one of the Thomas Phillips's. George Phillips, nephew of John in 1835 must have been a son of Thomas or some other brother of John.

John died in 1835, aged 80, and was therefore born about 1755. At least, one of the Thomas Phillips's had been born in Rhode Island as had several other persons in the neighborhood, Comstock, Chase, Greene, and other families. It is probable that John was a son of John, a brother of one Thomas and perhaps others of the Phillips men.

G.

Year of Birth of Benjamin Phillips, Oldest Child of John.

The Will of John Phillips names Benjamin as his oldest child. The date of his birth would assist in determining the date of the marriage of John and Elizabeth and the dates of birth of other children.

In the Surrogate's office at Troy, Phebe Phillips on Feb. 2, 1842 asks for freeholders to make an admeasurement of land. She is the widow of Benjamin Phillips who died April 16, 1828.

In Bins C.B. Page 817, Israel Phillips says that he is the youngest son of Benjamin Phillips and Phebe Smith Phillips of Grafton, N.Y. and that Benjamin Phillips died about forty-seven years of age.

If Benjamin Phillips died about forty-seven in 1828, he was born about 1781.

The C. H.

The Comstock and Arnold Lines

At least two and probably three children of John Phillips married members of the Comstock family, Joseph No. 10, Sarah No. 11 and probably Joanna No. 14. They are the descendants of William Comstock, Immigrant, 1, Samuel 2, Samuel 3, Thomas 4, William 5, David 6, who married Hannah Paris and lived in Berlin, Rensselaer County, N.Y.

Samuel 3 married in Rhode Island Elizabeth Arnold, dau. of Thomas Arnold, Immigrant. He was a descendant of the Royal Line of England, William the Conqueror, and the English kings back to Alfred the Great. See Austin, N.E.H. Vol. 33; Com. Fam; Fam. Tree.

For the Comstock Family in Berlin, see N.E.H. 1917, 1918, "Records of Easthoosuck Friends' Monthly Meeting."

All descendants of the above are of the English Royal Line, eligible to the Magna Charta Society, etc.

The Phillips Puzzle.

The solution of the puzzle calls for more information than the writer has at present. Is the Thomas Phillips who was grandfather of Rev. J.G.Phillips the same one whose will was written in 1830? If so, where are the rest of the daughters? Is this the same Thomas who received a Pension for service in Rhode Island? Is he the brother of John Phillips who lived with John in Grafton in 1780-90? Grafton and Petersburg are adjoining towns. Was George Phillips, nephew of John, a son of Thomas or some other brother? Is Sarah Jane Phillips right in saying that Thomas and Isaac^{vere} brothers?

The writer will be glad to receive information from any source.
